From the Principal

Opening Mass

It was tremendous to see nearly 1,700 people gathered in the Cloisters at school again this year to celebrate our Opening Mass. From the Welcome to Country provided by Mr Neville Collard to the induction of our student Special Ministers of the Eucharist, a poignant and reverent occasion was enjoyed by all in attendance.

When families, students and staff gather together at such times we have an authentic expression of our full community. One of the basic understandings of our College is that the home and school must work together harmoniously if the outcome is to be a well-balanced young man. There is great value and strength in our unity, and I have said on many occasions that wonderful achievements are possible when the young men of our College witness parents and staff working in a complementary manner. Thank you to all of those families which placed a high priority upon attendance and participation.

I would like to particularly congratulate the 11 senior students who were commissioned as Special Eucharistic Ministers as part of the Mass. Ben Anandappa, Joshua Barrett, Jeremy Fletcher, Thomas Godsall, Riley Howell, Rafael Leone, Aidan Liddelow, Alessandro Monaco, Oran O'Connor, Luke Prendergast and Alex Skinner have accepted this special privilege and responsibility. They are joined in this ministry by Mr Domenic Burgio, Mrs Vera Moura and Ms Marriann O'Neill. We wish them all well and commend them for their commitment to their faith and to the service of others.

The Christian Virtue of Joy

We are very blessed to have Fr Tony Maher as our parish priest and celebrant for the many liturgical events at the College. In recent times he has conducted our Staff and Year 12 Student Mass, our Ash Wednesday liturgy and our College Opening Mass. He will soon commence our regular Thursday morning masses as well as preside over the many other important liturgical celebrations we undertake each year. In addition to being an outstanding role model for the boys, he is a good friend of the College.

Fr Tony is also an inspiring homilist with the great gift of being able to deliver profound thoughts and ideas in a concise manner. On Monday evening he reminded all of those present that we are never alone when confronting the many challenges that arise in each of our lives. In addition to relying upon our family and friends for support at such times, we know that we have a constant companion in Jesus. Fr Tony went on to explain that the great comfort and assurance we may draw from this reality should engender happiness in our lives. This Christian virtue of joy is often underplayed but should be apparent in all of those seeking to lead a morally good life. As Christian people, our belief in a power much greater than ourselves requires faith in the capacity and desire of Jesus to bring happiness into our lives. Fr Tony's exhortation for each of us to bring joy to others through our daily living is wonderful advice for us all.

“One of the basic understandings of our College is that the home and school must work together harmoniously if the outcome is to be a well-balanced young man.”

House Swimming Carnival

Congratulations to all of the boys who participated in our House Swimming Carnival conducted at Challenge Stadium on Wednesday of this week. The general enthusiasm and loyalty to their House which was displayed by the boys and their teachers was a pleasure to observe. The focus for the day was giving every student the opportunity to participate and I commend the vast majority of the boys who seized this chance. Against this backdrop, there were a number of outstanding individual performances and a high degree of skill and diligence were displayed. One of the highlights of the day was the staff/student relay which was comfortably taken out by the Year 7 boys – although some review of the handicapping system may be warranted!

There is a strong sense of belonging at CBC and I trust that our new students and their families are coming to recognise and appreciate this connection. A full report on the Carnival is available later in this newsletter.

Mr Shaun Kenny
Principal

CBC
TREMANTLE

It was in January 1973, that Pope Paul VI, in the instruction “Immensae Caritatis”, first permitted extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist.

He wrote: “Present-day conditions demand that greater access to Holy Communion should be made possible so that the faithful, by sharing more fully in the fruits of the sacrifice of the Mass, might dedicate themselves more readily and effectively to God and to the good of the Church. First of all, provision must be made lest reception become impossible or difficult owing to a lack of a sufficient number of ministers.”

The institution of this particular ministry responds to the condition in the Church today whereby Catholics are encouraged to fully share in communion at every Eucharist in which they participate. Extraordinary ministers should be fully initiated Catholics, at least 16 years of age, who lead a life in harmony with the undertaking of this ministry including participating in the sacramental life of the Church.

In our context, Extraordinary Ministers are commissioned to function within their own school for a period of one year. The commission expires after this time. The boys are then encouraged to seek permission to continue their ministry in their local Parish.

It was a wonderful witness to their belief and commitment to their faith that 11 young men and three teachers were commissioned for this ministry at Monday's Opening Mass. They will continue to serve the needs of our faith community for the remainder of the year at Thursday morning Masses and other key liturgical celebrations.

Apart for their role in serving others, we pray that their own faith will be enriched by this ministry. Extraordinary Ministers are encouraged to deepen their knowledge and love of the Eucharist. Prayerful, reflective, faithful and affirming Ministers can only help strengthen the wider school community.

Director of Religious Education and Identity

CBC Principal Acclaimed

CBC Fremantle's Principal of two years, Mr Shaun Kenny, has been congratulated on his excellent leadership and educational vision by the Executive Director of Edmund Rice Education Australia (EREA), Mr Wayne Tinsey.

Mr Tinsey's praise of Mr Kenny was delivered after the Principal's exceptional performance review at the end of last year.

As part of the governance of CBC Fremantle by EREA, Mr Kenny underwent an external review at the end of 2012. The process was quite extensive, with interviews conducted with parents, students and staff regarding the Principal's performance. Mr Kenny was also interviewed by the Regional Director of EREA and underwent peer evaluation by another Principal.

Mr Kenny's friendliness and support of Catholic values were also praised in the light of the review.

Mr Rob Leicester
Chair of CBC Fremantle Board

Mr Tinsey's Message to CBC

Dear Parents/Caregivers, Staff and Friends of CBC Fremantle,

It is with much pleasure that I write to you concerning a recent external Performance Review conducted for your Principal Mr Shaun Kenny.

As expected, this process found that you have in Mr Kenny a leader of the highest calibre. Shaun's many gifts were recognised in a wonderful affirmation of what he has been able to achieve in the short time that he has had as Principal of CBC. There is clearly much to celebrate in Shaun's leadership.

Shaun's warm personality, his educational vision, his capacity to build relationships and his wonderful understanding of the vision for Catholic education inspired by Edmund Rice were clearly identified as strengths that he brings to his leadership role.

On your behalf, and on behalf of the whole Edmund Rice Education community across Australia, I congratulate Shaun on this marvellous Review, thank him and wish him well for his future as educational leader of your community.

Dr Wayne Tinsey
Executive Director of Edmund Rice Education Australia

Writers' Workshop is Back

The English Department is very pleased to announce the return of their successful Writers' Workshop for 2013.

The Writers' Workshop is aimed at all students of all ages and abilities who are in need of help with their writing, literacy skills or English homework. Every Tuesday morning in Room 002, English teachers will be on hand to help reinforce the learning done in the English classroom, by providing extension activities or extra guidance through the concepts being taught in class.

It must be emphasised that this is not a one-on-one tutoring service, but rather an opportunity for students to seek clarification from the English department on issues of understanding or comprehension of the tasks and activities they complete in class. Students will be encouraged to:

- complete extra activities provided by the teacher which further enhance their understanding of concepts taught in class;
- review their homework for accuracy and thoroughness, expanding on their responses in order to develop more depth to their thought-processes;
- review their assessment preparation (drafting and editing processes, as well as their study habits), ensuring the work they hand in for evaluation is of the highest personal standard;
- compare and contrast their work with other students in order to understand how the same task can be completed with different strategies.

The Writers' Workshop is open to all students of all ages. Boys who are interested in attending the Workshops can email Mr Testa at testa.clinton@cathednet.wa.edu.au to book in, or simply turn up on Tuesday morning. Students need to ensure that they have all relevant material with them in order to gain full benefit from the Workshop.

Where: Room 002

When: Tuesdays, 8.00am to 8.40am
